From the winner:

“All your riddle clues made sense this week - a Carrot Top building which is the Red top pavilion (yes, we used Google Earth to look for it). The open sides because there are brick walls but nothing to them.”

The Clues and Answers:

Carrot Top makes it pop. His name's kinda funny
(Orange roof of trailhead pavilion)

Another quirk: a boss at work can help you find the money
(Foreman Street)

Four walls thick and made of brick yet there's nothing to them
(Pavilion has no walls)

Like all clues, they're only news if you can see through them

(The medallion was lodged between bricks under the large
Dr. Bob Reagan donor plate above the brick wall)
