

Riddle #12 Solved!

Congratulations!
Andrew Strouse from Lowell!

His prize package contains Lowell Bucks sponsored by Canfield Plumbing and Heating, and a gift certificate sponsored by Chimera Design!
Additionally, anonymous donations of gift cards for Big Boiler Brewing and Ball's Softee Creme!

From the winner:

"I didn't really understand most of the clues except for it's the only one I've seen so I thought about the green tractor at the fairgrounds. I looked at Richards park first at the squiggly bouncy thing. I crawled underneath the tractor and I found it with a magnet."

The Clues and Answers:

Beyond where neon lights are bright (Broadway Street)
beyond the old still pond (King Memorial Swim Pool) Count your fingers, count your toes (Tow -Tractor) ride the road you're on (Broadway to tractor)
When trees are burning (Fall colors)
people fret (Guitar – music)
–the grass no longer green (Bluegrass Festival)
Till death does part I swear that it's the only one I've seen
(Tractor memorial for Ron Wenger)

The Lowell Riddler